The prizes were great but a bit fewer than last month...Keep them coming. Everyone is invited to bring something for the prize table, without your help....there can be no raffle.

At our monthly business meetings the club officers and board directors are always faced with the challenge of keeping our spending within our means, (monthly income) and we cut corners wherever possible. One of our major costs are incurred by renting space at the Yacht Club, and the raffle sales goes a long way to help cover the costs.

SACRAMENTO SUMMER YOUTH TRAD JAZZ CAMP

The following letter was received from Sarah Byrd, the student we sponsored this summer at the Jazz Camp.

To the Channel Cities Jaz Club:

Jazz Camp was a great adventure. From the moment I arrived, there was a sense of family and friendship among everyone.

The camp kept us busy, but it made being busy fun. Mornings we had theory class before band practice, after which came sectionals and lessons with our instructor, Greg. He showed us how to improve our skills by explaining things, such as how to play louder and clearer, as well as explaining the theory and knowledge behind it all.

After lunch we dove right back into band practice, which was fun, because everyone got along so well. Free time each day always consisted of a game, an activity, or both, and every band competed for a last day pizza prize.

Each night the bands would play the song they had learned that morning in front of everyone, and we all sounded so good. On the last day, leaving was hard, but we all knew we'd hear from each other again. It was a lot of fun, as I am already trying to go back next year.

Thank You for sponsoring me and giving me such a wonderful opportunity.

Sarah Byrd

THE JOYS OF GROWING OLD

You're getting old when getting lucky means you found your car in the parking lot.

You have a party and the neighbors don't even know it.

You're getting old when you're sitting in a rocking chair and you can't get it started.

You can live without sex but not without glasses.

Ahh, being young is beautiful, but being old is comfortable.

The older we get, the fewer things are worth waiting in line for.

You know you're getting old when you stop buying green bananas.

You're getting old when you wake up with that morning after feeling, and you didn't do anything the night before.

By the time a man is wise enough to watch his step, he's too old to go anywhere.

One must wait until evening to see how splendid the day has been.
